

Michelin Star Chef Seeks Manhattan Flagship

Ideally 50 – 70 Dining Seats + Bar

Philippe Orrico is an award-winning executive chef and restaurateur with over 20 years of international culinary experience. A four-time Michelin Star winner, he brings diverse experience launching and operating successful restaurants within fine dining, casual, and high-volume catering. His work has been recognized by international media outlets including Forbes Travel Guide, South China Morning Post, Lifestyle Asia, and Hong Kong Tatler.

Recognized for both his outstanding cooking skills and artistic foundation, Philippe has created notable programs for luxury brands, hotels, and restaurant groups, and has worked with industry leaders to translate their vision into successful, profitable concepts.

He enjoyed significant success under the mentorship of world-class chef Pierre Gagnaire in Paris, London, and Hong Kong, earning a loyal following and his first Michelin Star as head chef for Gagnaire's namesake restaurant at the Mandarin Oriental in Hong Kong. He earned his second Michelin Star as executive chef for the upscale St. George restaurant at the Hong Kong's hip boutique hotel Hullet House.

After successful runs at several highly-rated establishments in Hong Kong, Philippe opened Nomad Dining as founder and executive chef for three restaurants (Upper Bistro, On Dining, and Picnic), two of which each received a Michelin Star.
